How to Recover a Microsoft Account

If you're locked out, Microsoft provides a self-service recovery form. But it doesn't always work — especially if:

- You don't remember security answers
- Your backup email or phone number is outdated
- You've been hacked and information was changed

That's when you need live help. Call Microsoft Account Help at 1-866-396-3403, and a real agent will guide you through the recovery process step-by-step.

Reset Your Microsoft Account Password – Fast & Secure

Forgetting your password is one of the most common issues. You can attempt a reset via:

1. Go to <https://account.live.com/password/reset>
2. Choose “I forgot my password”

3. Enter your email or phone number

4. Follow on-screen prompts

Still locked out or not receiving the reset code?

Don't get stuck. Call 1-866-396-3403 for professional password reset help.
